

The Department of Canadian Heritage, through the Association of Canadian Publishers, offers a subsidy for the staff of Canadian-owned and -controlled book publishers to enroll in online and in-person workshops, seminars, conferences and courses. The program will subsidize activities that are professionally delivered, relevant to book publishing, and address identified professional development needs or challenges.

The subsidy covers 50% of registration/tuition fees ONLY. Up to two (2) subsidies will be granted per firm for each applied for PD activity, to a maximum combined subsidy of $1,500 CAD per activity. Additional applications are accepted, pending program budget, on a first-come, first-served basis. Other expenses, including travel, are not eligible for reimbursement. If you apply for subsidy and are then unable to attend the activity, please inform ACP staff immediately so that funds can be reassigned.

The following activities are eligible for subsidy funding. This list is not exhaustive; subsidies for attendance at other programs may be made available with prior approval. Contact ACP staff (admin@canbook.org) for details.

- eBOUND Canada Workshops
- SFU Summer Publishing Workshops
- BookMachine CAMPUS courses
- Editors Canada conferences
- Association of University Presses conferences
- Eastbound
- PubWest
- Other conferences or workshops related to book editing, design, production, sales, marketing, business management, etc.

Funding will not be extended to regular graduate and undergraduate studies at colleges or universities, or workshops taking place during AGMs of Canadian publishing organizations or associations.

Subsidy funding is limited. Separate applications for each staff member and event will be accepted until January 31, 2026, for activities taking place between April 1, 2025 and March 31, 2026. Recipients must fill out a post-activity evaluation form in order to receive a subsidy.* Claims will be reimbursed after the date of the activity* and upon receipt of financial contributions from Canadian Heritage. All forms and receipts should be returned to ACP staff at admin@canbook.org.

This subsidy is made available to the staff of all Canadian-owned and -controlled publishers, subject to the approval of the Canada Book Fund of the Department of Canadian Heritage. Publishers who currently receive funding through the Literary Publishers or Literary Publishing Projects programs of the Canada Council for the Arts, or the Support for Publishers Program of the Department of Canadian Heritage, are considered eligible, as are members of the ACP or any of the regional associations listed at the bottom of this page, as well as the Association nationale des éditeurs de livres and the Regroupement des éditeurs franco-canadiens. Publishers who neither receive funding from one of these programs nor belong to one of these associations may apply to the program, but their applications will need to be approved by Canada Book Fund staff; please contact ACP staff (admin@canbook.org) for assistance.

*Member firms who meet two of the following three criteria may apply for and receive a PD Subsidy before registering for the activity: net sales for the previous year under $100K; ownership/management by members of equity-deserving communities; not receiving Canada Council core or Canada Book Fund Support for Publishers funding. If a firm fails to complete the PD activity to which their subsidy applies, they will be obliged to refund the subsidy payment immediately and may not apply for future PD Subsidies until the refund has been paid.

***Please note that the submission of an application DOES NOT guarantee subsidy***
